Quarter Plan Resumed

Three Sessions Open To Summer Students.

The Normal faculty voted Jan. 28 to resume the quarter plan, beginning Sept., 1919. As former students know, the quarter plan was used by the Normal previous to Sept., 1918, and provides that the school year be divided into four terms, three of 12 weeks each, and a summer session of 10 weeks.

With the coming of the war, most of the colleges thruout the country adopted a three-term schedule of 16 weeks each. However, there is generally coming to be a feeling now that the quarter system best meets the need of the people. Most of the Missouri Normals are planning to resume this division of the school year.

Announcement was also made of the summer sessions. Everyone should certainly be provided for. Students may enter April 24, May 27, or June 20. April 24, an 8-weeks term begins, closing June 19; June 20, another 8 weeks session starts, ending August 15. In the meantime, May 27, a 10 weeks session will begin, closing Aug. 1. This will run simultaneously with the other terms. Hence, a student may enter April 24 and remain until Aug. 15, gaining 16 hours; he may enter April 24 and get 8 hours by working to June 19; he may enter June 20 and make 8 hours by Aug. 15, or he may begin May 27 and procure 10 hours by Aug. 1.

MR. OSBURN GIVES STUDENTS A MUSICAL TREAT.

Mr. W. J. Osburn gave a program of music at the Tuesday Morning assembly period Jan. 21. After an interesting talk on the value of music in rounding out the intellectual development, Mr. Osburn read the libretto of Verdi's beautiful old opera "Il Trovatore." He followed the reading of the story with several of the choicest selections from the music score of the opera, both vocal and instrumental. His violin interpretations of the "Anvil Chorus," "Tempest of the Heart" and other favorite selections were especially enjoyed. The vocal numbers which were pleasing, included the "Chant of the Nuns" and "Chant of the Monks," rendered in recitative style.

HIGH SCHOOLS PREPARE FOR BASKET BALL TOURNAMENT

Twenty-five high schools have paid their entrance fees for the basket ball tournament to be held at the end of the season.

Among the twenty-five are Albany, Breckenridge, Oregon, Hopkins, Maryville, New Hampton, Bethany, Bedford, Richmond, Tarkio, Fairfax, Gallatin, St. Joseph Central, Trenton, Liberty, St. Joseph Benton, and Excelsior Springs.

In order to be eligible to compete in the tournament the schools must keep a record of the games played, the teams playing, the official, the score, and the date of the game. They must have .500 per cent at the close of the season and must have played 6 games with members of the conference or with schools which have the approval of the board of control.

The officials in charge of the inter-high school field meet, to be held at the Normal in the spring, are contemplating a military phase for field day.

If this feature is introduced into the field meet, the cadets will compete in company drill, foot movements and other parts of their work. Companies from Trenton, Maryville, Hopkins, St. Joseph, Chillicothe and Maysville will enter.

MISS DE LUCE CHOSEN TO COMPILE RECORDS OF SOLDIERS.

Miss Olive De Luce has been appointed by A. C. Clark, Adjutant General of Missouri, to compile records of all men enlisted or drafted from Nodaway County.

These records will comprise statistics concerning: date of enlistment and discharge; engagements while in the service; wounds received and promotions. They will also contain data of ancestors who engaged in previous wars of our country. Any personal data of historical interest such as letters from the front and diaries will also be included in the survey.

Its completion will depend on the time of discharging the boys from the army as the information to a great extent must be obtained from them personally.

The compilation will serve as a grand finale to the war work for Nodaway County. The other counties of the state will send in their data also and the completed work will be a lasting record of individual accomplishment for Missouri during the world war.

INTER SOCIETY CONTESTS OCCUR APRIL 9, 10 AND 11

The annual inter-society contests will be held April 9, 10 and 11. There will be contests in declamation, oratory, debate, essay and extemporaneous speaking.

The questions for debate are: Resolved: That federal regulation of privately owned railroads is superior to government ownership and control.

Resolved: That a League of Nations will be a guarantee against further wars.

Resolved: That the formation of a national labor party would be for the best interests of the country.

The societies are urged to debate these questions at their regular meetings in order that they may become familiar with both sides of the questions.

The topic for the essay contest is Problems of Reconstruction. The students who enter this contest are allowed to select any one phase of this very broad general topic.

The topics for extemporaneous speaking will be selected later.

The societies have eight weeks to get ready for these contests; get busy, it's a good slogan to adopt.

WASHINGTON BIRTHDAY PARTY.

The Seniors and Sophomores will give their usual pre-war George Washington party on February 22. Their guests will be the Juniors, Freshmen and Faculty. As their plans call for all the pomp and powder of our colonial forefathers, let each one commence to think and plan for his attire now. Every college student should plan to be in town as no time will be spared to make it the best event of the school year.

This has always been the prettiest and most enjoyable party of the entire year and judging from the committees that have been appointed to prepare for this one, we believe that it will be up to the usual high standard. These committees which are already at work are:

Entertainment: Mattie Dykes, Mrs. Laurence, Lillian Carpenter, Jessie Murphy and Frances Holliday.

Refreshments: Laura Curfman, Iva Ward, Dale Hulet, Mary Angell, Velma Appleby and Emma Bertram.

Decorations: Vivian Seat, Earl Miller, Lou Mutz, Edith Kidder, Euel Ramsey and Mrs. A. J. Cauffield.

Reconstruction: Pearl Wilkerson, Hattie Hall, John Robison, Ethel Warren and Virginia Lawson.

Bear Cats Win at Tarkio

Midland Is Defeated at Maryville 45-20.

In a rough, fast game the Normal quintet beat the Tarks 34-22 on Tarkio's court Jan. 23. After the first five minutes Maryville took the lead and was never headed.

Twenty-two fouls were called during the game but only eight free throws were made by both teams. In the last half, Ham was put out on personal fouls and was succeeded by Selecman. McMahon substituted for Egley.

Lee (Dad) Scarlett was in his old position at guard and greatly strengthened the team.

The game: Maryville: Egley, Miller, McMahon, forwards; Ham, Selecman, center; Scarlett, Puckett, guards.

Tarkio: Graham, Legge, forwards; Patterson, Williams, center; Boettner, McCoy, guards.

Field goals: Egley 3, Ham 4, Selecman 1, Miller 6, Scarlet 1; Graham 3, Legge 1, Patterson 2, Boettner 3.

Free throws: Scarlett 3, Miller 1; Patterson 4.

Coach Sims being sick, Mr. Swinehart accompanied the team.

The Bear Cats defeated Midland College 45-20 on the Normal court Jan. 28. Twenty-six fouls were called during the game.

Midland started the scoring by making good a free throw. Maryville followed with a field goal. The Normal five had a hard time getting started and showed a lack of team work and ability to shoot baskets all during the first half. Midland played a strong defensive as well as offensive game and the half ended, Maryville 12, Midland 10.

In the second half Maryville came back with a fast, short passing offensive that overwhelmed the visitors. During this period, Puckett replaced Egley, Ham was put out on four personal fouls and Summers took his place at center. Both substitutes showed up well.

Big Bill was in his old position at guard and although a little soft from lack of practice, played a strong game.

The game: Normal (45). Field goals: Egley, forward, 2, Miller, forward, 11; Ham, center, 4; (Continued on Page 2)

The Excelsior Literary Society will entertain in joint meeting, Feb. 12, the Eurekan and Philomathean societies.

Much interest is shown in the Inter-Society contests.

Philomathean.

The Philo meeting Jan. 22 was of unusual merit and interest. There were but three numbers on the program, the first was a unique sketch of Beethoven written and read by Pearl Bryant. She impressed the audience not only with a knowledge of the great composer, but an intimate interest in his work; for, to supplement her discussion, she rendered very effectively the Moonlight Sonata. It was fascinating and blended the artist's touch with the spirit of the Sonata, and the life of the great musician.

The second number by John Robinson was a Satire on the Little Star that twinkles at evening. John demonstrated his ability, at word pictures by giving us a modern description of the little star with a pleasing, humorous effect.

Miss Zenor of the Normal faculty sang in her pleasing way. This was a special number which was enjoyed by all.

Throughout, the Visitor was impressed with the quiet, elevated tone of the entire program.

A VISITOR.

Miss DeLuce took the Philomatheans to New York, in her own private car, "Chalk Talk," Wednesday, Jan. 29. The thrills of Coney Island featured in this trip. The members pecked thru her father's windows at Riverside Drive. The society was entertained at a stop-over by a musicale given by Marie Turner.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

The Y. W. C. A. reorganized Jan. 23 for the purpose of reaching the interests of every girl in school. 75 signed up as members and it is hoped the other girls will do likewise.

New cabinet members were elected as follows:

President.....Dale Hulet
Vice-President.....Mrs. Mary Lawrence.

Secretary.....Elsie Houston
Treasurer.....Mary Angel

Miss Miller read a paper from the French women asking that women be represented at the Peace conference.

The installation of the new officers will take place at the next meeting.

Elsie Williams, a former Normal student, and H. C. Dougan of King City, were married recently. Mr. and Mrs. Dougan will make their home in King City.

Mr. Swinehart has bought the Coffman place at 515 West Second St. He will move March 1.

JAZZ IT.

Jazz it! That's the new term around the Normal. That's what the Normal hobo band did to Midland College Tuesday night, Jan. 28 at the basketball game played between their team and Miller's quintette.

Normalites were greatly agitated to hear a real band playing in the corridors before the game. It seemed a sure enough Barnum and Bailey stunt, especially when the Bear Cats walked away with their opponent's goat. The band may have dressed like hoboes, but the name to the enemy appeared more like hoodoos.

The crowd enthusiastically showed their appreciation and while the treat was sprung as a surprise at this game, that should not hinder it from being repeated again.

The men furnishing the music were: Sawyers, Yehle, Brown, Masters, Adle, Elmore, Nelson, Trulling, Stafford and Neal.

Mrs. W. G. Osburn has just received a letter from Mrs. Foster saying that Mr. Foster still finds his work very interesting, but much harder because of the confusion. He has very little time for letter writing, but would be glad to hear from his friends. His address is American Y. M. C. A., Rue d'Agnessean, Paris.

At present Mrs. Foster is keeping house for Mr. Foster's father; but is hoping to get a passport soon, so that she may join Mr. Foster in France.

Mr. Miller has been asked to deliver the commencement address to the graduating class of Gilman City high school. Mr. Miller has never received a call so early as this. He will probably be asked to deliver more commencement addresses this year than ever before.

NOTES OF THE DEPARTMENTS.

Science.

A recent Health Survey of the students taking physiology 1-b under Mr. Leeson shows, among other things, that 15 per cent have defective hearing; 50 percent decayed teeth; and 60 per cent defective eyesight, about one-half of whom would profit greatly by the use of glasses for study. This result is another good reason for a more effective health supervision of our school.

Mathematics.

War conditions brought the study of Mathematics to the attention of young men. Previous to the war, only students who desired to specialize in mathematics studied it. The war showed that mathematics was the basis of higher work in engineering, surveying and similar subjects.

New classes have been organized in surveying and higher mathematics. The enrollment is larger than usual and much interest is shown in the work.

Domestic Science.

The first of a series of dietetic luncheons was given Jan. 29 in the Normal Cottage by Laura Curfman and Mary Woolridge. The problem is to serve a thousand calories per capita with a maximum cost of fifty cents for each individual. It is also necessary that the menu contain a sufficient number of vitamins.

This luncheon is to be followed by a series given by each two girls in the class.

History.

The American History class is studying a weekly magazine, the Outlook, this quarter in preference to the Current History magazine which was used by the class last term.

This is a four hour class, and two Commercial Department.

By a final move, the typewriting room comes out a score ahead of the Wandering Jew.

Both the bookkeeping and typewriting rooms have been moved to the first floor, 102-103. A door will be cut between these rooms. This enables the commercial department to have all its work in one place, saving energy for both teachers and students. For a long time, it had been President Richardson's desire to have the department in adjoining rooms, but no place seemed available. When the S. A. T. C. demobilized, however, and the art department went back to the fourth floor, the former Red Cross quarters, since there was no longer call for this work, were empty. The junior high school then moved to this room, and the commercial department has what was the junior high school room.

Three-twenty will probably be used for unusually large classes, and eventually fixed up for stereopticon lectures.

Junior High School.

The junior high school has moved into the Red Cross room. This room affords better seating and working conditions. There is more bookcase space, also more room for the work bench and bulletin board. A new slate blackboard has been put across one end of the room.

Mary Esther Murphy of Polo, Mo., entered the junior high school Jan. 27.

Music Notes.

The orchestra met Friday evening Jan. 24, at Miss Zenor's.

The singing at assembly last Tuesday was very much better than it has been for some time and the cause for the improvement was the place—the library. It is to be hoped that this custom will be continued.

"PEP MEETING."

A "pep" meeting was held Jan. 22, in honor of the basket ball team, who were leaving to play a game at Tarkio. Music was furnished by an orchestra, composed of Mary Margaret Richey, piano, Ruth Hankins, violin and Lillian Carpenter, "kettle" drum. Much enthusiasm was shown in the student yells and songs. Light refreshments were served. The team left, feeling the students were back of them.

R. N. Malone, a graduate of the school, visited the Normal Jan. 22 in the interests of the Scott-Foresman Book Company.

A group of Normal girls had a line party at the Empire, Thursday, Jan. 23. Those making up the party were: Lou Mutz, Wave Hulet, Jessie Fannon, Edith Kidder, Lois Goodpasture, Estelle Williams, Imogene Watson, Mary Sawyers, Veturia Marie Faubion and Meryle Miller.

A representative of the New York Lecture Bureau was at the school Jan. 22 to arrange for a series of lectures on "Social Education," to be given in March for the girls of the school.

Miss Zenor and several of the students gathered in front of Coach Sims' home, Friday evening, Jan. 24 for a sing, to celebrate the victory of our basket ball team over Tarkio.

A person who was serenaded Friday night said our singing was beautiful, but we lacked words to express our deep emotions.—Let us get the words.

Vera Hughes, who is teaching at Oregon, was visiting at her home in Maryville Jan. 25-26.

The Association of Collegiate Alumnae completed its organization Jan. 23, at a meeting held in the high school building.

THE STROLLER.

As I promised in the last issue, I, the Stroller now step forth to reveal my true identity. It would not be in accordance with my principles to announce simply, "I am C. E. Wells or Mr. Brink, as the case may be." Then, too, I am like Prof. Swinehart in believing that you must work up to a climax. Knowing that you would not have me break the rules of good composition, I therefore begin at the beginning:

First and foremost, I am efficient like Miss Anthony.

I play basket ball like Bill Richards.

My hair is light like Mr. Swinehart's and I pompadour it like Mr. Wilson.

I tell jokes like Mr. Osburn.

I play the glad game like Minnie Turner.

I say, "NO, no, no," like Miss Floyd.

I am a good fellow like Forrest Brown.

I am very calm and take my time like Mr. Colbert.

I laugh like Miss Winn, but have a grouch most of the time like Henry Sawyers.

I call folks down for talking like Mr. Wells.

Just like Farris, I take a fair haired girl to the ball game.

When talking, I wave my hands wildly in the air like Miss Degan.

I say "Hello" like Britton.

I work folks like Miss Miller.

I give lots of folks low grades like Mr. Davis.

I loiter like Martin Lewis.

I slide down the bannisters like Miss Helwig.

I am inclined to be sentimental like

I lose my temper like Miss Brunner.

I tease the men like Frances Holaday.

I shut my eyes like Mr. Miller.

I go on mysterious journeys like Mr. Wilson.

I am quiet like Imogene Watson.

I have a date every night like Maye Rust.

I growl like Mr. Rickenbrode when you lose your locker key.

I am a Hoosier like Mr. Metzler.

I fuss around like Mr. Hawkins.

I am Mr. Hawkins' friend like Mr. Cook.

I spoon like Uel Ramsey and Mary Angell.

I get mysterious letters like Mattie Dykes.

I run the office like Iva Ward.

I hold my hands up when I go down the stairs like Miss Hopkins.

I have idears like Miss DeLuce.

I walk around with military men like Elaine West.

I ask everything in the book on examination like Mr. Leeson.

I am afraid of a mouse like Miss Boggs.

At home, I raise a garden like Miss Zenor.

I see that you are in bed by thirty like Mrs. Perrin.

I go to the second show like Pearl Wilkerson.

I consider everything carefully like Prexy.

In fact, I have considered the thing so carefully that I have decided to defer further confessions as to my real self.

And so it was all in vain. All that energy in songs and yells for Mr. Wilson were of no avail. About fifty loyal Normal students, and an unmarried faculty member congregated in front of Mr. Wilson's house, Friday night, Jan. 24 and sang to their heart's content, but Mr. Wilson didn't show up.

Puzzle: Where was he?

Answer: Out of town and no one knows where.

The Stroller was strolling past the bulletin board one day, when he saw this notice: "Lost, Martin; return to Mary M. Richey." The Stroller waited to see if any one would find Martin and return it (or him) to Mary M. Richey. Evidently some one did.

President Richardson left Wednesday, Jan. 29 for a short visit in the schools of St. Joseph, Liberty, Excelsior Springs and Richmond.

While there, he conferred with the various school officials in the general interests of the Normal. He returned Jan. 31.

Mattie Evans, who has been attending school at Cameron, entered school here Monday, Jan. 27.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS

PLAY BASKET BALL.

The girls basket ball team of the Maryville high school lost to the Pattonsburg team, 21-5, in a game played Jan. 24, in the Normal gymnasium. The Pattonsburg team was much more experienced than the Maryville girls. Their team work was unusually good. Letha Dix of the Pattonsburg team made nine field goals and one free throw. Ella McKinnis made one field goal. Ruth Miller, on the Maryville side made one field goal and two free throws. Mabel Raines scored one free throw.

This was the first public game played by the girls at Maryville, and there was a good crowd at the game. Many went for the novelty.

Loren Egley refereed the game.

The line-up for the Maryville team was: Forwards, Ruth Miller and Mabel Raines; jumping center, Justine Fraser; running center, Gladys Dragoo; guards, Ruth Bookman and Mary Miller.

Pattonsburg: Forwards, Letha Dix and Ella McKinnis; jumping center, Lela Best; running center, Faye Shaffer; guards, Hazel Best and Ella Maupin.

Chas. Wells came home Sunday, Jan. 26, on a ten-day furlough. Charles is stationed at Great Lakes, Ill., in the officer's school. He does not expect to be discharged before next summer.

Miss Mary Yapple, a former student here was visiting in Maryville with Mary Heifner over Saturday and Sunday.

Mary Whilmer, a former student of the Normal, died at Richmond, Mo., Jan. 19, of influenza. At the time of her death she was teaching in one of the ward schools at Richmond.

Fay Herndon visited Jan. 25-26 in Maryville.

Sergeant Major Lauriston Ramsey of Camp Dodge visited in Maryville Jan. 23. He is a former student of the Normal and a graduate of the University of Missouri, having received his A. B. degree in 1917.

REGENTS REAPPOINTED.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 29—Gov. Gardner yesterday sent to the senate for confirmation the names of Lee M. Phipps of Grant City and Trae D. Parr of Hamilton as members of the board of regents of the Maryville Normal. Both were appointed to succeed themselves.

FACULTY MEN GET REST ROOM.

Room 215 has been fixed up as a rest room for the men of the faculty. This room is very nicely arranged and will be a pleasant place where they can go after class to visit, read or study as they desire. The room is furnished with library table, chairs and lounge.

Miss Mary Fullerton of Stanberry entered school Wednesday, Jan. 15.

WOMEN SEEK PART IN LEAGUE.

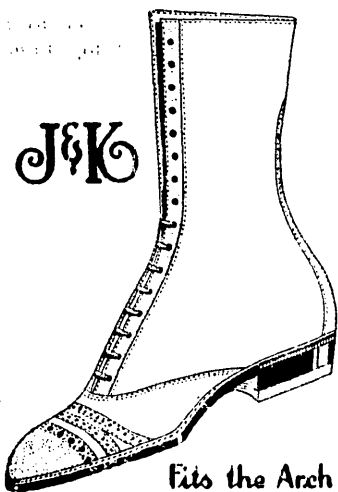

Also Asks Condiqn Punishment of Perpetrators of Atrocities.

Paris, Jan. 21.—A request that a place be given to women in whatever bodies may be created for putting into effect that idea of a League of Nations is made in a resolution presented to the Peace Conference by an organization of Frenchwomen under the presidency of Mme. Juliette Adam. This resolution accompanied one passed by the organization in which the demand was made that those responsible for atrocities during the war be punished as criminals, so as to prevent the recurrence of barbarities. The text of this latter resolution reads:

"In violation of the primitive law of humanity, thousands of women and girls, even children, of all social conditions, have been systematically torn from their families and submitted to inhuman tortures and treated as slaves.

"With broken and bleeding hearts, we women of France and the allied countries come before the Peace Congress to ask justice in the name of our martyred sisters. To prevent a recurrence of similar atrocities, we ask that those who have directed them and ordered them may be condemned as criminals."

The other resolution sets forth the work women did during the war.
